

National Weather Service Detroit/Pontiac

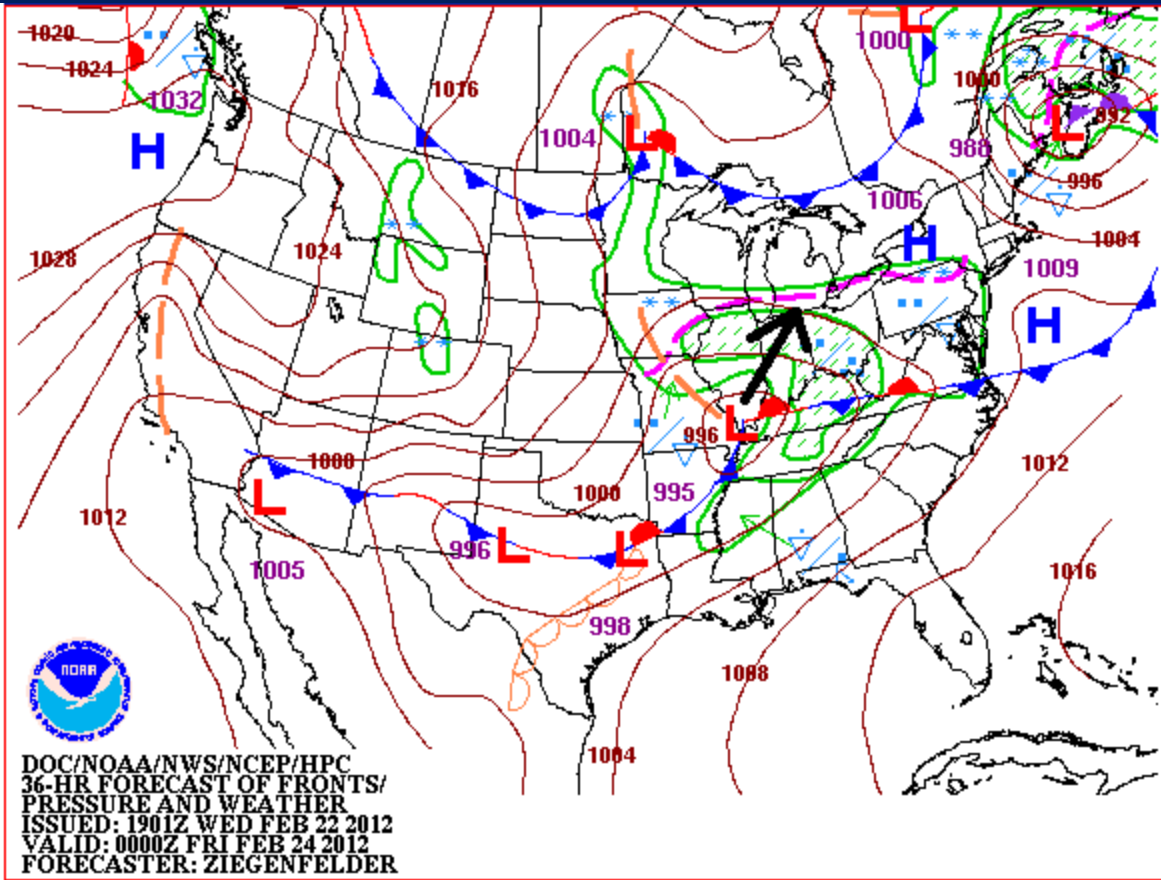

Multimedia Web Briefing February 22, 2012

Winter Weather Advisories through Friday

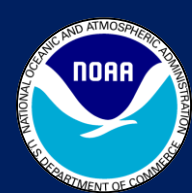

Forecast through Friday Morning

Low pressure will track east-northeast along the Ohio River. Snow will be heavy and widespread across southeast Michigan on the north and northwest flank of the low

Snow will continue Friday as the low tracks to the east

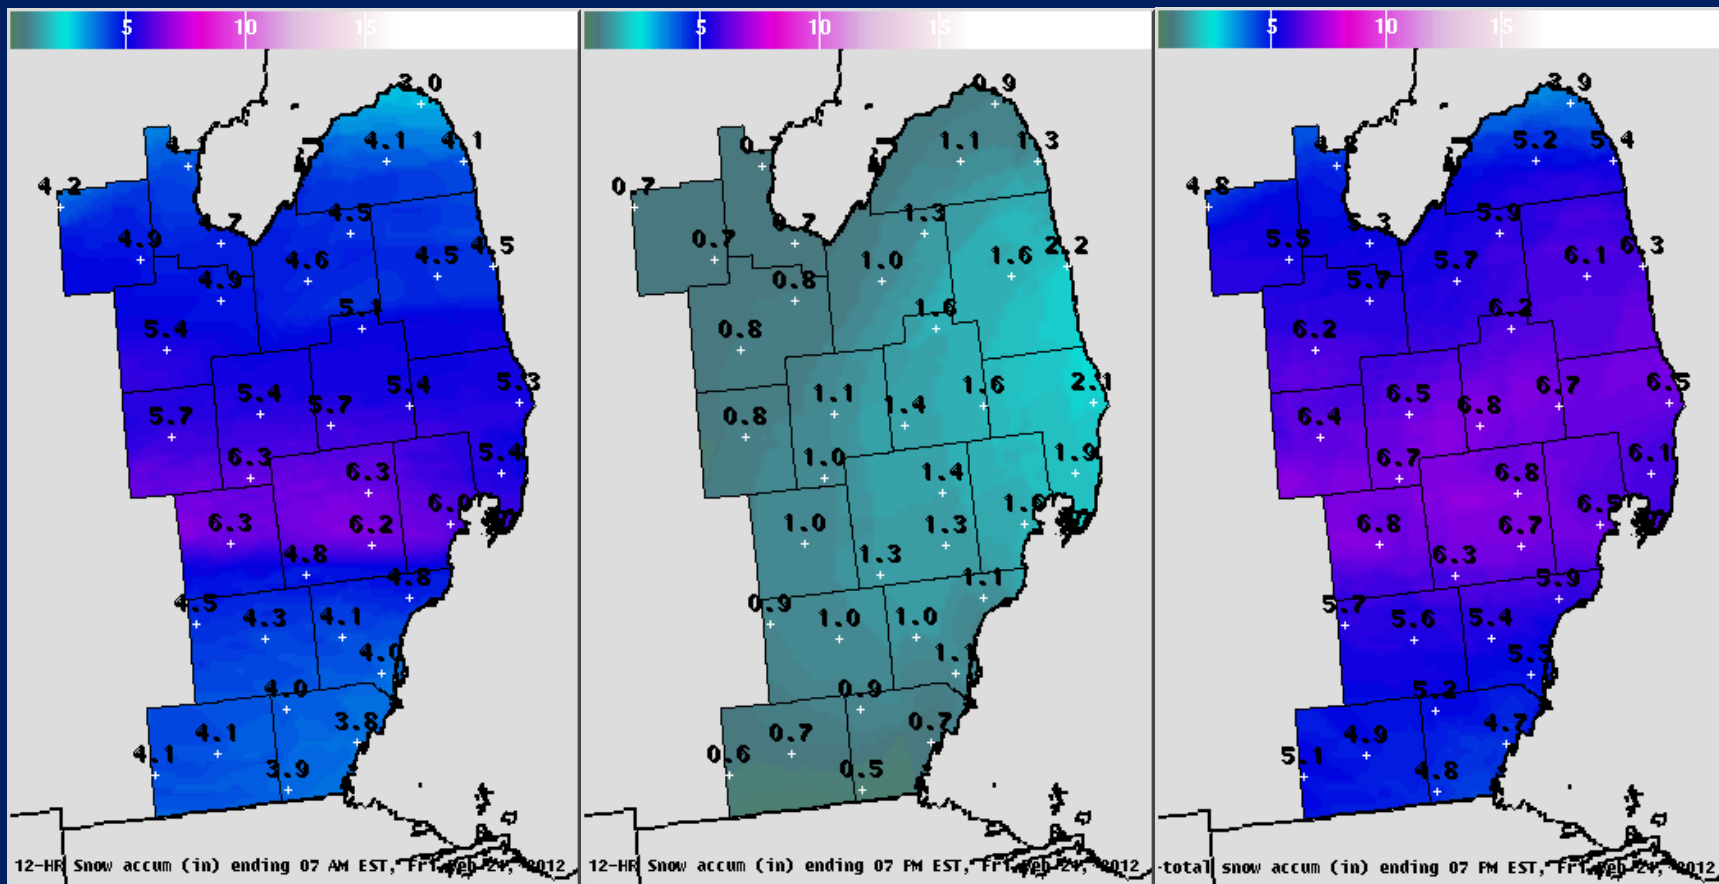

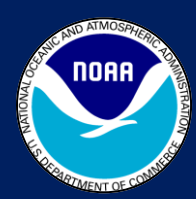

Snow Accumulations

Thursday Night

Friday

Storm Total

Summary of Weather Highlights

- Rain/snow mix late Thursday turns to all snow Thursday evening.
- 5-8" storm total across most of Southeast Michigan
- Heaviest amounts near the I-69 to M-59 corridor
- Snow subsides daytime Friday, but additional accumulations near 1" are expected (already included in storm total).